

MCAS Math Prep Class

(Grades 4 & 5)

Instructor: Falzone Tutoring Staff, Kerri Falzone

and Jennifer Montlack

The MCAS season is approaching and soon our fourth and fifth graders will be faced with the challenges that this test can bring. There are pressures that can result from these mandatory, standardized tests, and this class is an opportunity for your child to prepare themselves and to help alleviate any stress they may feel at the same time. We will have loads of math fun! As these young minds work toward solving complex mathematical problems they will feel invigorated with each achievement. This class will offer your student an opportunity to interact with peers in a safe and thought-provoking environment. Don't miss this chance to help increase your child's mathematical skills and heighten their love for problem solving.

Literacy FUNdamentals

(Age 3.5-6)

Instructor: Literacy Fundamentals Staff

Literacy FUNdamentals will give your preschool child an opportunity to develop the necessary building blocks for reading success in an interactive, playful environment. The program's foundation is built on using high-quality, themed literature that lends itself to exploring pre-reading skills. Using a creative and developmentally appropriate curriculum that includes games, music, movement, and hands-on activities, your child will develop their oral language, print awareness, phonological awareness and letter/sound correspondence. In each class your child will be introduced to a high-quality piece of literature that will be the spring board to our themed activities. Children will engage in activities that will stimulate cognitive, social/emotional, physical and language growth, while attaining the fundamental knowledge and skills necessary for optimal reading development.
